

Three weeks after birth, the wolf pups emerge from the den for the first time. Pups are active and playful. They chew, climb and play on adult wolves as though they were junglegyms.