

Winter is the time when wolves travel the most. Most often they travel to find food. The pups are grown by then and can hunt big prey alongside the adults.